ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE INDIAN HISTORICAL RECORDS COMMISSION—STAFFS, MADRAS—JANUARY 1924.

REPORT OF DR. S. KRISHNASWAMI AYYANGAR, M.A., F.R.S., M.B.E., F.R.Hist. Soc.

In pursuance of the resolution of the meeting held on the 16th of December 1923 appointing me Secretary with a Committee to make the necessary arrangements at Madras, with the Madras Section of the Indian Historical Records Commission, I took charge, from Mr. H. A. B. Varma, the Officer in charge of the Madras Branch, of the arrangements. On receiving the Minutes and the preliminary arrangements, I thought it desirable that the work so far begun be studied and with the approval of the Committee, the arrangements begun were pushed on, having regard to the shortness of the time at our disposal. The Secretary of the Commission arrived in Madras on the 2nd January and during the week before the Committee all the requisite arrangements were made to hold the Committee on the 10th in the House of Assembly. The Committee opened at the request of the Committee No. 448 to meet the expenses of the Committee.

2. The Committee held its sittings on the 10th and 11th of January. On the 10th, His Excellency the Governor presided and after a group-photograph the papers presented to the Committee were taken up. Eight of them were read beginning with one on Governor Gilbert of Madras by Miss Collett, kindly presented by Sir Charles Telford. The others about a dozen were taken as read, as some of them were already printed and circulated, and others were papers sent in, the authors being absent. The sitting was over by 4 p.m. and the Exhibition was visited by Their Excellencies and a select gathering of distinguished gentlemen including some of the members of the Royal Commission on Public Service.

3. On the 11th the Committee held its business meeting in the Records Office and adopted a certain number of resolutions. In regard to the formation of a local branch about which a resolution had been adopted by the general meeting on the 16th of December, the Commission considered themselves with making the long accepted members of Madras a local Committee, and I received their arrangements to make an appointment of correspondents elsewhere in centres where there was likely to be useful information forthcoming in connexion with similar records. The formation of a regional society with as was recommended in a special meeting of some of the members did not arise.

4. The exhibition was thrown open to the public on the 11th, 12th and part of the 13th, and the number of visitors may be about 5,000. It is gratifying to note that the Exhibition did create some interest.

5. The whole session may be regarded as successful having regard to the shortness of time at the disposal of the Committee for making arrangements. The success is due to the co-operation of many factors among which I must mention the willing co-operation of the Committee, the Executive and staff of the Records Office, the Committee and staff of the Oriental Manuscripts Library, the Librarian of the Presidency Historical Records who brought his own exhibits and Mr. S. Chinnappa Nayana Ayyangar, the Archaeological Assistant of the Museum and the staff of the Museum generally. The special thanks of the Committee are due to Mr. S. T. Srinivasapillai, M.A., M.B., Advocate, for having lent a collection of books in his collection from his private collection to the Exhibition. The Committee are particularly indebted to Mr. Chinnappa for his ready courtesy and willing assistance in all matters pertaining to the Exhibition. The Secretary to the Commission has been furnished with a statement of account with detailed vouchers for the amount of Rs. 500 that he has placed at my disposal for the expenses of the Exhibition. Out of this amount, the unexpended balance of Rs. 114-10-0 was returned to the Secretary to the Commission by means of a draft on the Imperial Bank of India.

Deputy Secretary to Government.

[Anti-rabies treatment—Rules for the grant of concession.]

No. 215.—The following amendment will be made to the Rules for the grant of concession to Government curable and subject persons undergoing anti-rabies treatment, appended to G.O. No. 1899, P.B., dated 6th September 1923:—

AMENDMENT.

For rule 1 in Appendix II (as amended by G.O. No. 3995, P.B., dated 12th November 1923) substitute the following:—

"A Government grant" in these rules means a Government grant whether temporary or permanent paid from provincial revenues or from port and marine funds administered by the Government, but does not include a Government grant to foreign service or in recognition of local fund raising; it also includes a Government grant where pay is deductible to Central Government if it is under the administrative control of the Local Government acting as the agent of the Government-General in Council."

Port St. George, February 16, 1924 (G.O. No. 391, P.B.).

No. 216.—Under Plague Standing Order No. 22 all appointments in connexion with plague require the sanction of the Government. Under section 70 of the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1920, and section 57 of the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920, however, municipal councils and local boards are competent to determine the strength and salaries of establishments to be employed by them from time to time. The power conferred by these sections applies also to establishments employed in connexion with plague. The sanction of the Government referred to in Plague Standing Order No. 22 is therefore required only in respect of establishments paid from Provincial funds. In order to make this point clear, the first sentence of the Standing Order is amended as follows:—

"All appointments in connexion with plague the cost of which is to be paid from Provincial funds require the sanction of the Government."

Port St. George, February 21, 1924 (G.O. No. 473, S. & M.).

No. 217.—The question has been raised by the Collector of Chingleput whether the cost of publishing in the district gazette the notification declaring the election of a president of a village panchayat should be recovered from the President, Taluk Board, Tiruvallur, who sent the notification for publication or whether the publication should be done free of cost.

2. Under rule 83 of the rules under the Village Panchayat Act, 1920, published under G.O. No. 395, L. & M., dated 28th February 1923, "the Registrar or the person specified by him shall notify" in the district gazette the election of the president-elect of the village panchayat. The Registrar referred to in this rule is the Registrar-General appointed under sub-section (1) of section 37 of the Madras Village Panchayat Act, 1920. Under sub-section (2) of the same section the cost of this officer and his establishment shall be paid out of the revenues of the Local Government. In the case under consideration the President, Taluk Board, Tiruvallur, was specified by the Registrar-General as the person who should notify the election in question. The Government therefore direct that the notification referred to should be published free of cost.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA. LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to provide for the constitution of a Central Board of Revenue and to amend certain enactments for the purpose of conferring powers and imposing duties on the said Board was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 10th February 1904:—

“We, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill is provided for the constitution of a Central Board of Revenue and to amend certain enactments for the purpose of conferring powers and imposing duties on the said Board was referred, have considered the Bill and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us, as directed therein.

2. The only alteration which we propose to make in the Bill is in the clerical amendment of the Sea Customs Act, 1878, where we have substituted for the words “the Chief Customs authority” the words “the Revenue General in Council.” We think that the power which is conferred by section 127 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878, to make rules for the purpose of regulating the trading trade should be transferred from the Local Government to the Government of India rather than to the Central Board of Revenue.

We desire further to express an opinion that the substance of any rules made under clause 2 of the Bill which affect the public generally, for example, rules as to the manner in which appeals shall be heard under section 127 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878, should be given due publicity, and we have received an assurance on behalf of Government that this will be done.

3. The Bill was published in the Gazette of India, dated the 9th February 1904.

4. We think that the Bill has not been so altered as to require republishing, and we accordingly think that it be passed as now amended.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill (to be moved the Indian Coinage Act, 1906, for certain purposes) was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 16th February 1934—

We, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee in which the Bill (to be moved the Indian Coinage Act, 1906, for certain purposes) was referred, have considered the Bill and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us, as amended thereto.

While we recognise that there is no substance in the suggestion that under the Bill as introduced the Government would have power to call in all papers or any papers without being liable to replace them, we think it advisable, in the interests of any immediate action for the extension of the power conferred by the Bill in respect of the two notes, namely, the rupee and silver half-rupee, which are universal legal tender, to exempt them from the operation of the proposed new section 15A. We have amended clause 8 of the Bill accordingly.

2. The Bill was published in the Gazette of India, dated the 9th February 1934.

3. We think that the Bill has not been so altered as to require re-presentation, and we recommend that it be passed as now amended.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Coinage Act, 1906 for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Coinage Act, 1906, for certain purposes: IN PARLIAMENT ASSEMBLED: It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Coinage (Amendment) Act, 1934.

Enactment of the

the 15, 1934

1934.

2. In clause (b) of subsection (1) of section 15 of the Indian Coinage Act, 1906 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), for the words "notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any Act hereby repealed, but except" the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"subject only to the provisions of section 15A and"

III-2

Consent of 1920
and 1921 in 1922
of 1922.

3. After section 18 of the said Act the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"15A. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 13, section 14, section 14 or section 15, the Governor-General, in Council may, by notification in the Gazette of India, call in, with effect from such date as may be specified in the notification any rule, of whatever date or denomination, referred to in any of these sections, after the date and day upon referred to in sub-section (1) of section 12, and on and from the date so specified such rule shall cease to be a legal tender note or a Government currency office. Provided that the Governor-General in Council may by the notification specify any later date up to which such rule shall continue to be a legal tender or any Government treasury."

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill further to amend the Indian Penal Code for certain purposes was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 28th February 1922:—

We, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill further to amend the Indian Penal Code for certain purposes was referred, have considered the Bill, and have now the honour to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto.

2. We agree that the raising of the age from 14 to 16 in section 373 and 374 of the Indian Penal Code is a necessary logical consequence of the enactment of the Indian Penal Code (Amendment) Act 1919 (XX of 1919), but we are by a majority of opinion that the case of section 361 stands on a different footing.

Section 361 provides a severe punishment for kidnapping from lawful guardianship a girl under the age of 18 years, in cases where the offence does not amount to abduction. The essence of this offence is deprivation of the rights and authority of the lawful guardian of the girl, and the offence is complete when the girl has been taken away by any person with a view to his retaining upon a marriage, house or other purpose, with himself or another person. It is not clear to us on all points that after attaining the age of 16, a girl should be entitled to resist her own inclination, always provided that no such force or fraudulent means are employed as would amount to abduction.

We think that our decision, by not taking the offender punishable under section 361, will not provide protection for girls of 16 years of age and upwards from the evil effects of persons known as "harem-keepers" who carry on, more especially in Northern India, a regular trade in girls who are induced, otherwise than by force which would amount to abduction, to consent to marriage in proper legal form. But we think that this particular case should be dealt with, after the inquiry and consideration, by the insertion of a new section in Chapter XVI of the Code.

Further, we have not failed to observe that our proposal affects the progress of the Bill in regard to sections 361 to 364 of the Code. But we think that sufficient protection for girls under the age of 18 in the cases dealt with by these sections is provided by the fact that even if the offence does not fall under section 361-4, it will in practically all cases amount to abduction as defined in section 362.

3. The Bill was published in the Gazette of India, dated the 8th February 1921.

4. We think that the Bill has not been as short as to require re-publication, and we recommended that it be passed as now amended.

* Subject to my vote of dissent.

† I regret to say that I dissent. I do not think that section 361 of the Penal Code should be dropped out of the Bill.

NOTE ON ENGLISH.

While I fully agree with my colleagues that the raising of the age from 14 to 16 in sections 373 and 374 is necessary, I regret I am unable to accept their view that it is not necessary to raise the age limit provided by section 361. Section 361 defines the offence of kidnapping with a view to marriage, house or other purpose, and the view of the law is being that a girl below 16 and a boy under 16 are not persons of sufficient maturity to judge for themselves the nature and consequences of their act. It is for the reason that we find in section 361 such persons are said with a person of sound mind. The view of the law is that the defendant in the kidnapping of such persons is not punished by the offence of abduction, which is where persons they are taken away by force from their lawful guardian or their lawful guardianship.

5. The Indian Penal Code was enacted in 1860 and the Indian Marriage Act was passed several years later. The Indian Act for the first time established the age of 16 years as the age when a person of both sexes is presumed to acquire sufficient capacity of intelligence to be able to act according to the provision. In this view I think it is necessary to raise the age in the case of both kidnapping and abduction, in which section 361 would read thus:—

"Whoever takes or entices any person under 16 years of age or any person of sound mind, with a view to his retaining upon a marriage, house or other purpose, with himself or another person, shall be punished with imprisonment for life or for any term not exceeding ten years, or with fine, or with any combination thereof."

I would meet my Responsible colleagues' objection to a case of intended meetings by prescribing a shorter sentence, say 15, but not think it is safe to assume that a girl under 18 should be left to judge of the consequences of her act. In England and even in India in certain cases women outside up to the 18th year. It is essential in the interests of decency that they should not be exposed to the corrupt influences of strangers without a legal safeguard, and I think it is the duty of the State to pass laws to protect minor children from such danger.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to give effect to the principle stated in the Resolution moved by the Hon'ble Mr. V. Swaminathan on the 2nd March 1921, in the Council of State, viz., that when fire-arms are used for the purpose of dispersing an assembly, preliminary warning should be given and certain procedure should be adopted.

A Bill to give effect to a portion of the Resolution was introduced in the Council of State by the Government of India and passed there in August 1921. When the Bill was passed by the Council of State was presented to the Assembly for consideration. It then gave notice of the amendment as contained in this draft. The Hon'ble the House Member took possession of the Bill in September 1921 to withdraw his motion in order to consider the amendment and bring it up again, it is almost, The Government decided to drop the Bill altogether, and did not make any further motion. It is necessary and desirable that legislative enactments should be provided against the indiscriminate use of fire-arms for the purpose of dispersing an assembly.
